

EDUCATION

Michigan Technological University, Houghton, Michigan
Bachelor of Science Electrical Engineering

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

1993-Present: Gausman & Moore Associates, Inc.

Electrical Engineer for retail, educational, institutional, commercial and industrial projects. Responsibilities include design and project management of electrical power systems, lighting, fire protection systems and audio/visual and data systems.

1981-1992: U.S. Air Force, Officer (Retired)

Detachment Commander, Flight Commander, Senior Pilot, Instructor Pilot, Flight Examiner. Responsibilities included management of personnel, training and evaluation, special projects, deployments, and flight operations.

PROFESSIONAL

Registration: Registered Engineer, Minnesota No. 24671, AK, AZ, AR, CA, CO, HI, IA, MI, MT, OR, TX, WA, WI.
LEED® Accredited Professional

Memberships:

- North Central Electrical Engineering Society (NCEES)
- Past President, American Council of Engineering Companies of Minnesota (ACEC/MN)

Continuing Education:

- 2006 University of Washington Cold Regions Engineering Course
- 2004 LEED® Advanced Training Workshop
- 2001 IES Advanced Lighting Course
- 2000 University of St. Thomas Mini-Master of Software Design and Development
- 2000 IES Intermediate Level Lighting Course
- 2000 Harmonics and Power Quality Workshop
- 1999 GE Lighting Institute Nela Park Retail Lighting Conference
- 1997 IES Fundamentals of Lighting
- 1996 Short Circuit and Overcurrent Protection Seminar
- 1995 University of Wisconsin Protection of Industrial and Commercial Electric Power Distribution Systems
- 1993 IEEE Planning Electrical Distribution Systems Seminar